

The Heiskell School

2009 Summer Reading List • Third Grade

Students entering third grade are to read at least five books during the summer. Students are to choose books which they have not read from the following list. On Orientation Day, each student is to hand in a report for each book read, using the attached format. Students may either make copies of this form or may write their reports on notebook paper using the same format. Many of these books may be found at your local library.
